GitHubのアカウント作成

The image shows the GitHub sign-up page. On the left, there's a dark banner with the text "Built for developers" and a description of GitHub. On the right, there's a white sign-up form with fields for Username, Email, and Password. A green button labeled "Sign up for GitHub" is at the bottom of the form. Four blue callout boxes with white text provide instructions in Japanese for each field and the button.

The screenshot shows the GitHub account setup interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with the GitHub logo, a search bar, and links for Pull requests, Issues, Marketplace, and Explore. The main heading is "Welcome to GitHub" followed by a personalized message. A progress bar indicates that the first step is completed and the current step is "Step 2: Choose your plan". Under "Choose your personal plan", there are two radio button options: "Unlimited public repositories for free." (which is selected) and "Unlimited private repositories for $7/month.". To the right, a list of features for the free plan is shown with green checkmarks. At the bottom, there are checkboxes for "Help me set up an organization next" and "Send me updates", and a green "Continue" button which is highlighted by a blue box.
